

MOSAIC

Data Management & Business Intelligence Platform

The MOSAIC platform creates a single virtual space of data and indicators in a company by collecting data from various sources using a queuing system, presenting them in a user-configurable structure in the form of reports, dashboards or datasets in self-service mode. MOSAIC calculates, checks and analyzes KPIs and provides data to consumers in an automated mode incl. into external databases and IT systems, increasing availability and reliability of data.

MOSAIC Platform areas of use: Business Intelligence and Reporting, Data Management, ETL Data Loading, Support for decision making, data products and data-driven business processes.

MOSAIC Platform functionality: Web interface, connecting to various data sources, manual and batch data entry, incl. from Excel, virtual data space - data access without replication, report designer, data visualization, dashboards, forecasts, analyzing trends and events, control of data correctness and freshness, storage of results of data requests and reports, destruction of personal data, access rights management, data masking, REST API, Telegram bot, loading data into different consumer databases, delivering data to consumers in various ways, communicating with clients, Master Data Management, Business glossary, Data catalog, searching and describing data, Full user's self-service support working with data.

MOSAIC platform works steadily in a high-load mode, which is confirmed by the real operating experience of customers under a load of up to 30'000 unique active users.

MOSAIC-BI.COM